Beautiful Ramifications

November 19 – December 24, 2005

Reception:

Saturday, November 19, 6 – 9 pm

Artist talk:

Saturday, December 3, 6 – 8 pm

Intensely working to complete the last painting for his upcoming solo exhibit Beautiful Ramifications, Gary Brewer puts the final touches on his newest piece.

This show will be the highlight of an already stellar year for Gary Brewer. His large-scale painting Bee in Amber was purchased by the Turtle Bay Museum in Northern California and his first catalogue was published with an essay by renowned critic and Museum Director, Robert McDonald.

Inquiries are advised as paintings are being collected prior to the opening of the show. The catalogues will be available at the gallery during the exhibit.
