L2kontemporary turns the gallery over to Simone Gad this August, and lets her go wild curating a great big thank you show of mostly small work for everybody in Los Angeles!

“The Eclectic World of Gad is a rollicking fun summer show, and also a thank you to my friends who have been of enormous help and encouragement to me throughout the years. It is also a thank you to some of the artists who I’ve known since the 1970’s, up through the present, that have been there for me. It is a thank you to my gallery, L2kontemporary, as well as the L.A./NY/European art scene, of which I have participated since 1970, and plan to keep on contributing to!”
